Introduction

Are you someone who has a common sense approach, can make appropriate decisions using sound judgement and is able to communicate effectively one-on-one and in a group setting? Manitoba Correctional Services is seeking individuals who are energetic, dedicated, optimistic, committed to teamwork and constant learning, have a positive work ethic, and a genuine concern to help a diverse group of people in conflict with the law. Job requirements can be both physically and emotionally challenging and include a variety of shifts with hours of work that may include short notice call-ins. You must be able to adapt and handle stress. Verbal and written communication as well as interpersonal and conflict management skills are necessary. Case management and group programs will involve direct contact with male, female or youth inmates/residents and their rehabilitation process.

Locations to include:

Milner Ridge Correctional Centre, Headingley Correctional Centre, Brandon Correctional Centre, Winnipeg Remand Centre, Women's Correctional Centre, The Pas Correctional Centre, Manitoba Youth Centre

Information Sessions:

If you are interested in learning more about the recruitment process and career as a Correctional Officer or Juvenile Counsellor, information sessions will be offered at a later date (to be determined). Please contact CorrectionsRecruitment@gov.mb.ca to add your name to the list.

Tours:

Correctional Centre tours are a requirement of the selection process. Selected candidates will be advised on how to contact the correctional centres to arrange for a tour.

Interviews:

Interviews are a requirement of the selection process. Interviews will be available to candidates based on application screening results.

Training:

For selected candidates, a mandatory free training program of approximately eight weeks (full days Monday to Friday) is required. Following successful completion of the training program, you will be hired as a part-time, term Correctional Officer or Juvenile Counsellor. Satisfactory enhanced security screening, Criminal Record Check (with Vulnerable Sector Search), Adult Abuse Registry Check, Child Abuse Registry Check, as well as confirmation of full class 5 (5F) Manitoba Driver's Licence are mandatory and all documents must be submitted prior to training. Minimum of Standard (Intermediate Level) First Aid CPR-C & AED certificate and a medical fitness report are also required prior to the start of training.

During the mandatory training program, recruits are eligible to receive a stipend up to $2,800 for the duration of the eight-week program. Candidates who are selected for a training opportunity will be provided with additional information regarding the stipend application process.

To be considered for this competition you must submit an Application Screening Form along with a cover letter, resume, Applicant Checklist Form and a copy of your driver's licence (please click on the Application Form link to submit your interest for this position).
